A PRELUDE OF FAMILIAR HYMNS

C: Congregation

INVOCATION

P Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation. He comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

C Thanks be to God.

P When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by Baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

HYMN (LBW 518) Beautiful Savior (verses 1, 3, 4)

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray.

O God of grace and glory, we remember before you today sister, Enni. We thank you for giving her to us to know and to love as a companion in our pilgrimage on earth. In your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us your aid, so we may see in death the gate to eternal life, that we may continue our course on earth in confidence until, by your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before us; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen

PSALM 23 Please read together

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want. ²He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters; ³he restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for his name's sake. ⁴Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil;

for you are with me; your rod and your staff they comfort me. ⁵You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. ⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD my whole life long. Amen

APOSTLE'S CREED – Read Together

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

P Let Us Pray

Almighty God, you have knit your chosen people together in one communion, in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Give to your whole Church in heaven and on earth your light and your peace. C: Hear us, Lord.

P Grant that all who have been baptized into Christ's death and resurrection may die to sin and rise to newness of life and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass with him to our joyful resurrection. C: Hear us, Lord.

P Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that your Holy Spirit may lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days. C: Hear us, Lord.

P Grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins and serve you with a quiet mind. C: Hear us, Lord.

P Grant to all who mourn a sure confidence in your loving care, that, casting all their sorrow on you, they may know the consolation of your love. C: Hear us, Lord.

P Give courage and faith to those who are bereaved, that they may have strength to meet the days ahead in the comfort of a holy and certain hope, and in the joyful expectation of eternal life with those they love. C: Hear us, Lord.

P Help us, we pray, in the midst of things we cannot understand, to believe and trust in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, and the resurrection to life everlasting. C: Hear us, Lord.

P Grant us grace to entrust Enni to your never-failing love, which sustained her in this life. Receive her into the arms of your mercy, and remember her according to the favor you bear for your people. C: Hear us, Lord.

TOGETHER WE PRAY THE LORDS PRAYER

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

COMMENDATION AND BENEDICTION

P Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant, Enni. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a Sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive her into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. C: Amen

He came to the United States from his native Finland as a young man, in 1911 to Rockland, Calif., where he served an apprenticeship as a hand granite cutter. In 1923, he came to Astoria, where he was employed by Thompson's Astoria Granite Works for more than 30 years, retiring several years ago.

Pernu was an honorary member of the Granite Cutters' International Association of America and a veteran of World War I.

He was married July 1, 1927, in Seattle, Wash., to the former Fannie Kauppi, who survives him at the family home at 252 Second street.

Besides his widow Fannie, he is survived by one sister Mrs. Lillie Ojala in Finland, one uncle in Astoria, several nieces and nephews and cousins here and in Finland.

Services are planned for Saturday at 1:30 p.m. and will be announced by the Luce-Layton Funeral Home.

Crossing the Bar

Twilight and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar...

HYMN Beautiful Savior LBW 518

INVOCATION

P. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation. He comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

C Thanks be to God.

P When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by Baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Vilho Perttu

Finnish war hero, 82

An Astoria resident since 1950, Vilho Perttu died Saturday, April 10, in Astoria. He was 82.

Mr. Perttu was born Jan. 11, 1911, in Kauhava, Finland. After attending school, he served for 14 months in the army and was then accepted into the Finnish Police Academy. He worked for several branches of the police for 17 years, then rejoined the Finnish army during the nation's struggle to remain independent from Russia during World War II. He served in the army for more than three years, most of that time in active combat. Mr. Perttu was decorated often and twice received the Medal of Freedom for valor.

An outstanding track athlete in the 100-, 200- and 400-meters and the long jump, Mr. Perttu was the northern Finland champion with times and distances which were then the best in the country. He declined to participate in the trials for the Olympics because of family and work obligations.

He married Helena Nieminen on Dec. 3, 1939, in Finland. She survives.

After the war, he resumed his police career. In 1950, during a time of political turmoil in Finland, he moved with his family to Astoria because of deep concern for their future.

In Astoria, Mr. Perttu was a custom carpenter and contractor until he retired in 1978. He was active in Finnish-American activities and was a member of the Finnish Brotherhood Lodge in Astoria, serving as an officer for the grand lodge. He was a member of Peace Lutheran Church. After retiring he enjoyed gardening, fishing and reading.

Funeral will be Wednesday at 1 p.m. at Peace Lutheran Church in Astoria with interment at Ocean View Cemetery. Friends may pay their respects at Hughes-Ransom Mortuary tonight until 7 and Tuesday from noon to 7 p.m.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

HYMN Beautiful Savoir LBW 518

INVOCATION

P Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation. He comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

C Thanks be to God.

P When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by Baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray.

PRAYER through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen

REMEMBRANCES Family and Friends

FIRST READING Matthew 5:3-11 Read by Linda Bergstrom

PSALM 23 Read by Kristina Peterson

GOSPEL John 14:1-7 Read by Arissa Peterson

SERMON

HYMN How Great Thou Art LBW 532

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell.*
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

PRAYERS

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit your chosen people together in one communion, in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Give to your whole Church in heaven and on earth your light and your peace.

C Hear us, Lord.

A: Grant that all who have been baptized into Christ's death and resurrection may die to sin and rise to newness of life and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass with him to our joyful resurrection.

C Hear us, Lord.

A: Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that your Holy Spirit may lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days.

C Hear us, Lord.

May the road rise up to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face and the rains fall gently at your heels
Until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

Gone But Not Forgotten

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled,
The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

To Those I Love

*I should never leave you whom I love,
To go along the silent way,
Grieve not, nor speak of me with tears,
But laugh and talk of me as if I was there.*

*And when you hear a song or see a bird I loved,
Please do not let the thought of me be sad...
For I am loving you just as I always have.*

*There are so many things I wanted still to do,
So many things to say to you,
but this I know, I loved you so-*

John Elmer Piukkula

(December 11, 1920 - August 08, 2019)

John Elmer Piukkula passed away early Thursday, Aug. 8, having spent his final day surrounded by family, including each grandchild and both great-grandchildren.

John was born in Astoria, to Finnish parents John and Maria Piukkula, on Dec. 11, 1920. He absolutely loved the town of Astoria, and quite possibly was one of the last "Uniontown Finns."

John was incredibly proud of being a Uniontown Finn, holding close ties to the Finnish community. He frequently spoke of wishing to return to Astoria, but remained in the Beaverton area to be near his family.

John, who was best known in Astoria by his middle name, Elmer, married Meeri Paulina Tarkiainen on Sept. 5, 1953, in Astoria. After 51 years of marriage, Meeri unexpectedly passed in January 2005. It brings the family great solace knowing the two are together, forevermore.

John received his schooling in Astoria, and served in the Coast Guard.

Among his accomplishments, John held an over 40-year career working for U.S. National Bank in Astoria and Warrenton. He thoroughly enjoyed working with finances, also holding the position of financial secretary for the Finnish Brotherhood (UFKB&S) for a significant span of time. When he relinquished the position, he was only the second person who had held it since the inception of UFKB&S in Astoria.

John had also been a member of the American Legion, American Cancer Society and Peace Lutheran Church. John's daughters believe he felt his finest achievement was his involvement in the conception of Clatsop Care and Rehabilitation Center, and being elected to the founding board of the center.

John was a dedicated husband, father and grandfather, who made it clear that his family was of utmost importance. In the late 1980s, after leaving his 2-year-old grandson, Kyle, at his day care, and seeing Kyle cry as he left, John told his daughter, Lisa, "never again."

He meant it. John volunteered to commute between Astoria and Beaverton to care for Kyle. The two enjoyed days of solving puzzles and having lunches together. After Meeri retired, they relocated to Beaverton, continuing to care for all the grandchildren, and building more precious memories.

It would be remiss to not include another of John's greatest loves in this message. One of John's constant companions while living in Astoria was his beautiful collic, Keegan. To see them together was to know the bond they shared was extraordinary.

John is survived by his daughters, Pauline Aursland and Lisa Hibbert (Mark), of Beaverton; grandchildren, Kyle Hibbert (Ashley), of Hillsboro, Lindsey Sullivan (Aaron), of Beaverton, Anja Aursland Meeuwsen (Jaron), of Newberg, and Erika Maija Hibbert, of Portland; great-grandson, Axel Meeuwsen, and great-granddaughter, Ella Meeri Meeuwsen.

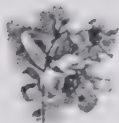

John is also survived by his brother-in-law, Reino Tarkiainen (Marilyn), of Sherwood; cousin, Sirkka Kalevala (Eero), of Finland; and numerous nephews and nieces in Oregon and Finland.

A graveside service will be held for John on Thursday, Aug. 15, at 2 p.m., at Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton.

Memorial gifts may be made to Clatsop Care and Rehabilitation Center, in care of Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary, which is in charge of the arrangements.

God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you
And whispered
'Come to me.'

A golden heart
stopped beating,
Hard working hands now rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around you
And whispered
'Come to me.'

A golden heart
stopped beating.
Hard working hands now rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

Serving the Family
Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary

Eila Anna-Liisa Rahkola, 84, passed away peacefully on July 21, 2019 of complications from Parkinson. She was born Dec. 27, 1934 to Anna Vilhemiina Piukkala in Pyhäjoki, Finland. She graduated from high school and continued in home economic school where she would learn skills that served her family all their lives.

Eila married Antti Rahkola in a beautiful outdoor wedding on June 20, 1954 in Kalajoensuu, Finland.

The young couple saw opportunity in the USA where relatives lived in Esko, MN. They moved there in 1958 with two little children and one on the way.

As the family grew, Eila used her many skills to care for her household. She sewed, knitted, cooked everything from scratch, and was an exceptional baker.

A decision to move to Astoria came after a visit to see relatives. Eila and Antti packed their belongings, five children and Mummo, Eila's mother, to arrive in Astoria on July 1969. The beautiful surroundings, good fishing, and Finnish community made Astoria the perfect place to raise a family. So perfect, cousins from Finland arrived in 1971. The Vedenoja's lived with Rahkola family, 18 people for 6 months.

After the children were grown, Eila worked in the kitchen at the high school, her first job outside her home. She retired along with her husband to do some traveling.

Eila was a member at Peace Lutheran Church and Finnish Brotherhood. Her greatest joy was welcoming new babies into the family, she had a special gift for calming them. She was loved by many and will be missed.

Eila was preceded in death by her husband, Antti and her son, Thomas Allan and granddaughter Grace. She is survived by her children: Anne (Rick) Stuckel, Mary Danagan, Anita (Jyrki) Jalus, Karin (Bob) Blair, Allan Rahkola and Tina (Tom) Lips. Grandchildren: Griffen, Johanna, Stan, Raija, Pete, Anna, Max, Edie, Mackenzie, Maggie, Lillie, Victoria, Ryan and Evan. Great-Grandchildren: Ashley, Brock, Henri, Eila, Brooklyn, Greta, Iris, and Zoey. One great great granddaughter, Rilee.

A special Thank you to the Astor Place and all staff members for the great care they gave our mother.

A private graveside service will be held. The family invites who knew Eila to join us at Peace Lutheran Church, 565 12th St., Astoria, OR for a reception on Saturday July 27th from 4:00pm to 6:00pm. Donations can be made in Eila's memory to Peace Lutheran Church.

MORNING HAS BROKEN

Morning has broken like the first morning.
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall sunlit from heaven.
Like the first dewfall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden.
Spring in completeness where His feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning
Born of the one light Eden saw play!
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God's recreation of the new day!

Elsa Lydia Rautio, age 88, died Friday, March 25, 2011, in Astoria with all three of her daughters at her bedside. She was born on February 27, 1923, in Kalvia Hilli, Finland, to Johan Sandvik Palo and Lyydia Maria Palo. She received her education in Finland, completing Emantakoulu (Home Economics School) in 1946. She graduated with a GED through Clatsop Community College in 1980. She became a US citizen in 1986.

On December 21, 1947, she married Kalle Valio Rautio in Kalvia, Finland, shortly after he returned from the Finnish-Russian War. They lived in Ruotsalo, Finland at the Rautio farm until they immigrated to the US with their young family in January of 1955.

Elsa worked at Bumble Bee Seafoods for 20 years, first at Cold Storage, then on the tuna and salmon lines, and finally in the laundry. She enjoyed working several summers for Bumble Bee in South Naknek, Alaska. She was also an Avon sales representative for many years, achieving President's Club status. She worked side-by-side with her husband building the family home where she resided until her death.

She received a medal of honor from the Finnish government in 1997 for her service on the home front during World War II, from 1939-1945. She worked on the family farm, often doing heavy manual labor such as plowing fields, tending to farm animals, milking cows and haywork. She told stories of guarding Russian prisoners of war during these war years.

A 50-year member of the Ladies of Kaleva Lodge, Tyynettaren Tupa No.40, she held many leadership positions in the organization. She was also a member of the Finnish Brotherhood Lodge, Suomi-Seura, Peace Lutheran Church and the Mary Unit Bible study group.

Elsa was a loving and devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, very supportive of her children and grandchildren and involved and interested in all of their activities and accomplishments. She exuded a positive attitude and her beautiful smile and warm demeanor greeted all who she met. She loved to meet new people and was truly interested in their lives.

Elsa was energetic and always excited to learn something new, encouraged education and was an inspiration to us all. She took a variety of classes throughout her lifetime, even learning to use the computer to e-mail friends and family. She learned to swim as an adult, becoming an avid lap swimmer and then taught tots to swim at the YMCA along with her young grandchildren.

Elsa was a wonderful homemaker, excelling in cooking, baking, sewing, tailoring, weaving, and a variety of handcrafts. She learned how to use a knitting machine and made many beautiful items that she shared with the family. She spun and dyed her own yarns and made rag rugs on her loom. She loved working outdoors in her flower beds and raised a garden full of vegetables and berries. She was a naturalist and believed in eating fresh produce and herbs from the garden along with home-made juice which she gave away happily. Among her specialties were rye bread and "squeaky" cheese which she made to sell at the Scandinavian Festival for many years.

She loved music and challenged herself by taking piano and guitar lessons. She and Valio would often break out in song and loved to dance in their day. Elsa was also very artistic and enjoyed both reciting and writing poetry. She worked hard at learning English as a second language.

Traveling was also something that both Elsa and Valio loved doing. They drove the Alcan Highway to Alaska in their VW bus twice, camping along the way and enjoying nature. They made several trips to Finland, the most recent being in 2007 with extended family.

Despite failing health in recent years Elsa's faith remained strong and she rarely complained. We appreciated her prayers and devotion to her family. Her generous nature and loving spirit will never be forgotten. She was dearly loved and will stay in our hearts forever. We will miss you dear Aiti and Mummu!

She is survived by three daughters, Pirkko Liisa McKamey and her husband, Richard, of Worland, Wyoming, Maria Paivikki Turner of Lake Oswego, and Eija Helen Stevenson and her husband, David, of Astoria; seven grandchildren, Christopher Stevenson of Astoria, Kerry Stevenson of Santa Monica, California, Ryan Turner and his wife, Shannon, of Lake Oswego, Renee Turner of Seattle, Jeremy McKamey and his wife, Amandalee, of Denver, Jana McKamey of London, England, and Jordan McKamey of Worland; three great-grandchildren, Kyle, Jacob and Charles Turner of Lake Oswego; and numerous nephews and nieces in Finland.

She was preceded in death by six sisters, Hilda Pajala, Liina Katarina Linna, Eva Nissi, Toini Ornberg, Saara Salo, Anna-Liisa Hayrynen; three brothers, Toivo, Jussi and Matti Palo; and a son-in-law, Ritchie M. Turner II.

Kanteleeni, (My Kantele) was a favorite hymn of Elsa's.

1. My Kantele, most beautiful, in Heav'n some day will ring, my kantele, most beautiful, in Heav'n some day will ring and there I'll find a sweeter voice with which I, too, can sing, and there I'll find a sweeter voice with which I, too, can sing.
2. Though here on earth I sound my praise of Jesus, most adored, oh, blessed be that blessed day when I will meet our Lord!

The LORD is my shepherd;

I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters, He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

KALLE VALIO RAUTIO

Kalle Valio Rautio, a longtime Astoria resident, passed away on August 25, 2010 at his home. Valio was born in Ruotsalo, Finland on June 23, 1917, to Kalle and Hilma Rautio. He was the eldest of 6 children.

Valio was educated in Finland and spent his childhood and early adult years on the family farm. He was an athlete, excelling in gymnastics and skiing. In 1952, Valio proudly carried the Olympic torch in the Helsinki Summer Olympics. He began compulsory military service in 1939 and served until 1946 as a sergeant in the Finnish Army during the Winter War and Continuation War on the eastern and northern fronts of Finland.

Upon returning home he met Elsa Palo of Kälviä Hilli, Finland. They were married on December 21, 1947 and made their home in Ruotsalo. Over the next years the couple had three daughters and worked to save money to move to the U.S. In January 1955 the Rautio's settled in Astoria and over the next three decades Valio worked at Pernu's mink ranch, as a cabinetmaker at the Astoria Marine Construction Company and a boat builder at Columbia Boatbuilding, and finally as a mill worker and shareholder at the Astoria Plywood Corporation from 1958-1979 before his retirement.

Valio was a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and was active in Finnish organizations including the Knights of Kaleva, the United Finnish Kaleva Brothers and Sisters (Finnish Brotherhood Lodge of Astoria), and the Suomi-Seura (Finnish Society). He was also a member of Peace Lutheran Church. Valio was honored for his military service and at the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial (2005) for helping to construct the original replica of Fort Clatsop in 1955. He obtained U.S. citizenship in 1986.

Valio was held in high regard and loved by his family and all who knew him. He welcomed everyone he knew with a firm handshake and an unforgettable smile. He was known affectionately as "Pappa" by his grandchildren. He was a humble man, but one of many talents. He was a horticulturist, growing a beautiful garden. An expert carpenter and craftsman, he enjoyed spending time in his woodworking shop and constructed the family home he was so proud of. He loved a good joke, a good cup of coffee and good company. He valued hard work and was always ready to lend a hand. He was patient and embodied the word "sisu". Valio was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather throughout his life. He will be dearly missed.

He is survived by his wife of 62 years Elsa, daughters Liisa McKamey (husband Richard) of Worland, Wyoming, Maria Turner of Beaverton, and Eija Helen Stevenson (husband David) of Astoria; seven grandchildren, Christopher Stevenson of Astoria, Ryan Turner (wife Shannon) of Lake Oswego, Jeremy McKamey (wife Amandalee) of Denver, Renée Turner of Seattle, Kerry Stevenson of Santa Monica, California, Jana McKamey of Washington, DC, and Jordan McKamey of Worland, Wyoming; three great grandchildren, Kyle, Jacob, and Charles Turner of Lake Oswego; and numerous nephews and nieces in Finland.

He was preceded in death by his brother Esko Rautio and sisters Anniki Nivala, Senni Aho, and Siiri Järvi. His sister Elvi Autio passed away on August 26, 2010. All of Valio's siblings lived in Finland. Also preceding him in death was his son-in-law Ritchie Turner II.

Heartstrings

*When those we love go away, they never really leave us;
they are with us now, wherever we are.
Those whom we have cherished, live on forever,
for love wraps itself around the heart.
Although it's difficult now, someday beyond our tears and all the world's wrongs;
beyond the clouds and all that we can see and touch,
we shall all understand.*

THE COMMENDATION AND COMMITTAL

(P) Into you hands, O merciful, we commend your servant Louis. Acknowledge we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of you own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints of light.

(C) Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning is now, and will be forever. AMEN.

(P) Since almighty God has called our brother from this life to himself, we commit his body into the hands of Almighty God, our heavenly Father. Christ was the first to rise from the dead, and we know that he will raise up our mortal bodies to be like his in glory. We commend him to the Lord; May the Lord receive him into peace and raise him at the last day.

(A) Let us pray:

Lord Jesus, by your death you took away the sting of death. Grant to us, your servant, so to follow in faith where you have led the way, that we may a length fall asleep peacefully in you and awake in your likeness; to you, the author and giver of life, be all honor and glory, now and forever.

(P) Rest eternal grant him, O Lord.

(A) And let light perpetual shine upon him.

Undying Love

God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower strewn pathways all our lives through.

God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, nor peace without pain.

But God hath promised strength for labor,

Light for the way, grace for the trials,
Help from above, unfailing sympathy and
Undying Love.

Finding joy and healing in nature's beauty

By CATHY PETERSON
Of Coast Weekend

We mark the coming of spring in swallows, lambs and daffodils.

And hummingbirds.

A giddy Rufous attempted to take nectar Tuesday morning from the rusty old light posted outside our garage. I watched the tiny red hummingbird approach the lamp from all angles, his wings beating madly as he tried to coax food from what surely looked to him like a huge flower. A minute later, meal denied, he darted off in the direction of our flowering plum tree and the promise of blossoms.

How lucky I felt to carry that image with me for the day, for I was off to attend a friend's funeral. We lost a kind person last week when Ervin Rinell died. After all, there are not many of us who have our Santa Claus suits, and probably fewer who got as much wear out of them as did Ervin. The lifelong Astoria resident, a retired postman, helped build his church and run the food bank, raised a grandson at 60+ and warmed many a seat at an Astoria High School girls or boys sporting event.

Ervin also gardened.

That's how I got to know Ervin, and his wife, Gertie. Almost eight years ago, we moved into the house next door to them in the Gray Elementary School neighborhood. A row of shrubs separated our backyards and we could easily see into each other's yards. Ours was grass, punctuated by a huge, old apple tree. His was neatly mowed, also sported an apple tree, and a tidy vegetable garden at the far end of the lawn.

As I poked around our yard one evening, enjoying the view of Youngs Bay and trying to figure out where to place our greenhouse, Ervin greeted me and we shared pleasantries. I think he was disappointed that we didn't have children, since several had lived in our house before we bought it.

I decided I'd win him over with a big garden.

Over the next two years our garden took shape. We added a greenhouse and raised beds, subtracted the apple tree for still more sun and planted huge sunflowers. Since we were selling vegetables and cut flowers at the local farmer's market, the garden took on new significance. Everything grew.

Rudi and I cared for our garden with a vengeance I now recognize (as a parent) that is usually reserved for one's children. Our lettuce bed – a market bed, now mind you, that brought in cash each week – usually held 40 ripening heads, one month red and green Romaines, the next month frilly red and green heirloom varieties with exotic French names. I even interplanted the red and the green lettuces for a checkerboard effect that we could look at from our window and I think Gertie and Ervin could enjoy from theirs. I call the time my "high Martha" gardening period, in honor of Martha Stewart.

From our garden came bounty, and we shared it with our neighbors. There's a certain satisfaction to be had when you can share your garden – it gives you license to be greedy as the nursery and at the seed rack ("I'm gardening for four now, thank you"). It also just feels good. I liked knowing that an occasional head of lettuce, cucumber or cut flower bouquet made its way to Gertie and Ervin. I even planned to have purple and gold flowers in the garden each year, knowing that our neighbors liked to take such a bunch of flowers to Astoria High School reunions or other such events.

As for Ervin, he taught me the lesson I have failed at since moving to our Youngs River farm. He also thought nothing of burying a fish carcass in his vegetable garden in winter, covering it with a board, and planting the patch the next spring. A good Scandinavian, his potato patch was always full in summer with Yellow Finns and the raspberries that grew from the vines skirting the garden bed and could melt in your mouth. We'd share a handful of those sweets and watch our tabby tomcats run back and forth between the yards – first Ervin and Gertie's Willy, and then their young kitty, Scooter, and our cats, Tao, Spike and Baggio.

I remember that Gertie and Ervin never blinked an eye one spring when my chainsaw happy husband volunteered to prune their apple tree. Rudi attacked the tree with the same passion as the hummingbird I mentioned at the beginning of this column, leaving what looked to me like a nude stump. But sure enough, come summer the remaining branches sprouted leaves and grew fruit.

Ervin had a faith in Rudi's pruning that I've never had. The same goes for Ervin's belief in Rudi's beer homebrewing experiments. I remember Rudi coming up from the basement one evening, waving a couple of bottles of wicked, yeasty stout at me, and setting off for a "tasting" next door with Ervin. One time, Rudi conjured up a batch of thick brown stout and a light, red beer and gave a bottle of each to Ervin. "Ah, a redhead AND a brunette," our neighbor said, Once our son, Ben, came in the world, we got to know Erv as Santa Claus. Our neighbor donned his worn Santa suit, down to the fluffy white beard, on Ben's first Christmas in 1995 and announced himself at our door by ringing a little bell. Wi Gertie at his side, Ervin made I way into the house and Ben froze. We put our 8-month-old, solemn little boy on Ervin's lap. Ben took one look at Ervin, reached his chubby hand under the beard and gave Ervin a nasal scrape on the chin.

Santa never flinched, though remember his eyes watering a little bit of red seeping through the snowy beard. Ben and Ervin were friends ever since. At Ervin's funeral Tuesday, I was struck by the number of friends and family that had gathered to honor him. We laughed together to remember Ervin's jaunty proclamation "Typical Astoria weather" anytime the sun appeared, as it had earlier that morning when I witnessed the Rufous hummingbird summoning food from the garage lamp. In Native American legends, the hummingbird brings joy and healing. I think that is what Erv would have wanted for us that day – to go forth in joy. To love. To heal.

And, to garden.

The Legend of the Dogwood Tree

AT THE TIME of the crucifixion, the dogwood was the size of the oak and other forest trees. So firm and strong was the tree that it was selected as the timber for the cross.

To be used for such a purpose, caused the tree great distress and grief. Jesus observed this and in His gentle pity for all sorrow and suffering, made the tree this promise,

"Never again shall the dogwood grow large enough to be used as a cross. Henceforth it shall be slender, bent and twisted. Its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross with the print of the nails in each petal. In the center of the flower will be the crown of thorns, and all who see it will remember that it was upon a dogwood tree I was crucified. Therefore this tree shall not be destroyed, but cherished as a reminder of my death upon the cross."

⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I have set the LORD always before me.
Because he is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.
Therefore my heart is glad
And my tongue rejoices;
My body also will rest secure,
Because you will not
Abandon me to the grave,
Nor will you let your faithful one see decay.
You have made know
To me the path of life;
You will fill me with joy
In your presence,
With eternal pleasures at
Your right hand.

OBITUARIES

Robert Raymond 'Bob' Roeser

Astoria

August 18, 1923 – June 9, 2013

Robert (Bob) Raymond Roeser, 89, passed away on June 9, 2013, in Portland, Oregon. Bob was born on August 18, 1923, to Joseph Roeser and Samuel Ella (Holmes) Roeser of Columbia City, OR. He was the youngest of five children. Bob spent most of his childhood living in the Clark & Wilson Camp 8 Logging Camp, excelling as a high school 4-sport athlete, and graduating from Vernonia High School in 1942. He enlisted in the U.S. Army, where he served in the medic-corps, in the European Theater at the time of the Normandy invasion, as a Graves Registrar. He was also honored to represent the U.S. Army as a punter in the Army vs. College All-Star game in August of 1943.

After his WWII service ended, he lived in Mist, Oregon, working as a logger and courting a local girl, Priscilla (Peggy) Irene Hansen, whom he married on March 19, 1948, in Vernonia, Oregon. Robert served an apprenticeship with Hughes-Ransom Mortuary in Astoria, Oregon, and pursued becoming a Mortician by attending and graduating from the California College of Mortuary Science in 1950.

The couple returned to Astoria, where Bob began his 42-year career with Hughes-Ransom Mortuary. He was privileged to have been the first non-family member to own a portion of the business. He and Peggy welcomed two children, Robert Carl, in 1951 & Jane Marie, in 1956. Bob was very active in his community, as a member of the American Legion Clatsop Post #12, Independent Order of Oddfellows, Elks Lodge, Order of Freemasonry, The Lions Club, Astoria Rotary Club, Astoria Golf & Country Club and The Y.M.C.A., where he served in various positions and offices.

Bob was a member of both Trinity and Zion Lutheran Churches in Astoria during his lifetime, and served as president of the church board at Zion Lutheran when the two churches merged and became Peace Lutheran, and where he has since been involved on the Church board, on various committees and has been a faithful servant to his Lord and Savior,

Jesus Christ.

During the time he was working and raising a family, he built two homes from the ground up, that the family lived in. He may have been known more for his carpentry skills than any other single accomplishment, spending thousands of hours in his basement shop building cedar chests, baby cradles, birdhouses, gun-stocks, fine furniture and refinishing or repairing furniture for others. He was generous to share these labors of love with friends and family.

Bob was an avid sportsman and athlete and spent countless hours camping, hunting, fishing, bowling, water-skiing and playing golf. He was a wonderful, generous, hard-working and hard-playing man who loved his family, his friends and found pleasure in giving comfort and support to those he came into contact with.

He is predeceased by his parents and siblings and by Peggy, his wife of 64 years, who passed away on Jan. 10, 2013. He is survived by their Son, Robert C. Roeser & daughter-in-law, Cynthia R. Roeser, Portland, OR; Daughter, Jane R. Gillette & son-in-law, Martin Gillette, La Pine, OR; Grandsons Robert B. Roeser, Andrew Roeser, and Michael Roeser, Portland, OR; Matthew Gillette & his wife, Amanda Gillette, Bend, Or; Marcus Gillette & his wife, Kerry Gillette, Salt Lake City, UT; and 3 Great-Grandchildren: Alexis, Kendra and Landon Gillette, Bend, OR; and various nieces, nephews and cousins.

A Funeral Service will be held at Peace Lutheran Church, 565 12th St. in Astoria, on Saturday, June 15th, at 1:00 p.m. Viewing is available Friday at Hughes-Ransom Mortuary, Astoria, between 10:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. and on Saturday between 9:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Private Interment will be at Willamette National Cemetery. Memorial Contributions may be made to Peace Lutheran Church or a charity of your choice.

Mother, No Words
Could Ever Express
Our Love For You

Looking back, we can see so many sacrifices you made along the way. Some were small, and some were too great to repay, but they were all made without hesitation-because you loved us.

As we think of all our yesterdays, we recall so many times when you turned our tears into laughter, so many problems you helped us to face. You were a shoulder to lean on when we needed you; you were always there-because you loved us.

As we grew older, you couldn't always be with us, but you always were there in spirit, giving guidance when we needed it, helping us make each decision. You taught us to be strong and to believe in ourselves. You taught us right from wrong-because you loved us.

Now, we look back on the years and realize how lucky we have been. You were and will always be a very special part of our lives. We want to thank you for helping us and for giving us the courage to reach our dreams.
